Description of the product offered

What's the purpose of travel insurance (nature of coverage)?

Travel insurance provides financial protection against sudden and unforeseen events that could occur while you are travelling.

Your contract therefore includes some exclusions relating to certain activities or illnesses, among other things. For example, you may not be covered while practising dangerous sports or for health problems or symptoms that you had before you purchased your contract or leaving on your trip.

We recommend that you read the exclusions and limitations sections of this guide so you understand your coverage.

These sections are marked with a  symbol.

Who can be insured (eligibility)?

For a person to be insured under this contract:

- they must be a Canadian resident;
- they must be at least 15 days old;
- their trip must begin and end in Canada, in their province of residence;
- they must apply for the insurance before the departure date and for the entire scheduled duration of their trip;
- for the Emergency Health Care coverage only: they must be covered under the government health and hospitalization insurance plans of their province of residence for the entire duration of their trip (it's your responsibility to ensure that each person that you want to insure is covered under these plans);
- for the Emergency Return Trip coverage: they must be covered under the Emergency Health Care coverage or equivalent coverage offered by us for the entire duration of the trip.

For a child who is born on the trip to be covered:

A child born during a trip is automatically insured under the Emergency Health Care coverage if the mother is insured under this coverage and expenses for delivery are not excluded (see the exclusions for this coverage on pages 10 to 14).

Description of the coverages

Emergency Health Care coverage

(covers trips outside your province of residence)

Who's insured under this coverage?

Check the "Your insurance choices" document.

We cover the expenses incurred outside your province of residence outlined on pages 6 to 9, minus any deductible, if:

- you suddenly and unexpectedly become ill or have an accident on your trip; and
- you require emergency medical care or services.

4 things to know before reading any further

1 You must call our Assistance Service BEFORE going to a hospital or clinic and follow their instructions. Otherwise, you will be required to pay 30% of the eligible expenses, up to a maximum of $3,000.

- If you are unable to call yourself (for example: you are unconscious), another person must call on your behalf within 24 hours following the accident or illness. If you are travelling alone, you should carry your travel assistance card on you.
- If you have chosen to have a deductible (an amount of expenses for which you are responsible), you must pay this penalty after the deductible has been applied. The amount of the deductible, where applicable, is shown in the "Your insurance choices" document.

2 The expenses are covered:

- up to the maximums indicated, which, unless otherwise indicated, apply per insured, per trip;
- up to an overall maximum of $5,000,000 per insured, per trip;
- up to the reasonable and customary amounts usually billed for such care or services in the region where they are received.

3 If you chose to have a deductible, it applies per insured, per trip.

4 We are not responsible for the availability or quality of the care and services received.

Caution – Exclusions and limitations

1) Penalty if you don't contact the Assistance Service BEFORE going to a hospital or a clinic

If the obligation to contact the Assistance Service indicated on page 5 is not satisfied, you'll be required to pay 30% of the eligible expenses, up to $3,000.

If you have chosen to have a deductible, you must pay this penalty after the deductible has been applied.

2) Exclusion for injuries or medical conditions that were not stable before leaving on your trip

Were you suffering from any injury or medical condition prior to leaving on your trip? Was this injury or medical condition not stable in the 3 or 6 months prior to your departure date?

You are not covered if you incur expenses for this reason, even if you had declared it in the medical questionnaire or if a physician told you you could travel. Travel insurance only covers unforeseeable events.

How to determine if an injury or medical condition was not stable:

Answer each question in the "6 questions to answer" box on the next page for EACH injury or medical condition. In case of doubt, contact your physician or us for assistance.

- Were you under age 55 on your departure date? Answer for the 3-month reference period.
- Were you age 55 or older on your departure date? Answer for the 6-month reference period.
- Does the "Your insurance choices" document indicate that you have the "Stable for 3 months" option? Answer for the 3-month reference period.

6 questions to answer

During the 3 months/6 months prior to your departure date, did you have an injury or medical condition for which:

1. you had new symptoms or the existing symptoms were more frequent or more intense?
2. you consulted a physician (except for a routine check-up)?
3. a physician recommended that you undergo a test, you underwent a test or you are waiting for the results?
4. you had surgery, were hospitalized or a physician recommended that you have surgery?
5. you started a new treatment, including a new drug, or a new treatment was prescribed?
6. you had a change in treatment or medication (quantity, frequency or the medication itself) or this change was prescribed?

We do not consider a routine adjustment to insulin or Coumadin, or the replacement of a brand-name drug for an identical generic drug if the dose is the same, to be a change of medication.

Did you answer YES to one of the 6 questions above?

Your injury or medical condition has therefore not been stable in the months prior to your departure date. You are not covered for this injury or medical condition, or related injury or medical condition, except in the event of the exceptions below.

Exceptions for certain minor medical conditions

Is your medical condition a cold, flu, ear infection, sinus infection, sore throat or tonsillitis? You are covered for this medical condition:

- if you have recovered for at least 30 consecutive days on your departure date; and
- if this medical condition is not a chronic illness or a complication of a chronic illness.

3) Other exclusions for medical reasons

We will not pay any expenses in the following cases:

- if a physician advised you not to travel;
- if you are taking the trip to receive medical care or services, even if the trip is recommended by a physician;
- for optional or non-emergency care, even if you receive it further to an emergency. "Optional and non-emergency care" means that it can be obtained in your province of residence without endangering your life or health;
- for care, treatment or surgery received for cosmetic purposes and any related complications;
- for expenses related to hospital care not covered under the hospitalization insurance plan in your province of residence;
- for life-sustaining drugs that you take on an on-going basis, such as insulin, nitroglycerin and vitamins;
- for expenses resulting from pregnancy, miscarriage, childbirth or their complications that are incurred after the first 32 weeks of pregnancy;
- for expenses incurred after the date you refuse the treatment prescribed by the attending physician or the Assistance Service, or if you refuse to follow any of the following instructions from the Assistance Service:
 - change hospitals or clinics.
 - undergo a diagnostic examination.
 - return to your province of residence.

4) Exclusions related to your participation in certain sports, activities or risky behaviour

We will not pay any expenses in the following cases:

- For an accident that occurs while you are participating in:
 - any sporting activity for pay;
 - any sporting event for which the winners are awarded cash prizes;
 - any non-standard sport or activity involving a high level of risk, such as those indicated below, for instance:
 - hang-gliding and paragliding;
 - parachuting and sky diving;
 - bungee jumping;
 - climbing and mountaineering;
 - freestyle skiing;
 - amateur scuba diving, unless you hold at least a basic scuba diving licence from a certified school;
 - any combat sport;
 - any competition, speed event or other high-risk activity involving the use of a motor vehicle, including training activities, whether on approved tracks or elsewhere;

To find out if you are covered for a sport or activity

Call us at 1-855-368-6924 and choose option 2
or write to us at desjardintravelinsurance@dsf.ca.

- if the expenses result directly or indirectly from an injury you inflict yourself, a suicide or attempted suicide, whether or not you are aware of your actions;
- for an accident or illness that occurs while you are participating in a riot or criminal act;
- for an accident or illness that occurs while you are using narcotics or abusing drugs or alcohol.

Drug abuse means exceeding the dosage recommended by a health specialist.

Alcohol abuse means the consumption of alcohol resulting in a blood alcohol level of more than 80 mg of alcohol per 100 ml of blood.

5) Exclusion related to a trip to a country that the government advised against visiting

We will not pay any expenses for an accident or illness that occurs while you are travelling in a region or a country that the Canadian government had advised Canadians against visiting before your trip begins.

However, we will accept your claim if you can demonstrate that the particular situation existing in the country visited did not contribute in any way to the accident, illness or expenses.

6) Exclusion in the case where another insurance contract was extended

If the Emergency Health Care coverage under this contract was taken out to extend another insurance contract: we will not pay any expenses relating to an accident or an illness that occurred while the other contract was in force if, on the start date of the extension:

- you were hospitalized due to this accident or illness; or
- you should have been hospitalized or should have been repatriated to your province of residence due to this accident or this illness in accordance with our rules.

Expenses reimbursed

2 things to know before reading any further

- 1 For any trip:
 - reimbursement of your living expenses is limited to $200 per day and $2,000 in total;
 - reimbursement of your other expenses is limited to your insurance amount;

 Your insurance amount is shown in the "Your insurance choices" document.

We will reimburse the non-refundable fees you paid in advance to a travel service supplier on the date the cause for cancellation occurs.

Tip: Cancel your trip as soon as you can!

As soon as the cause of the trip cancellation occurs or you suspect that you may not be able to travel, be sure to cancel your trip, as only the expenses that were non-refundable at the time the cause of cancellation occurred are eligible for reimbursement. The longer you wait, the less will be covered, as fewer expenses will be reimbursed by the travel service provider.

2. If your travelling companion has to completely cancel their trip due to one of the recognized causes and you decide to still proceed with your trip.

We will reimburse the additional expenses incurred due to the absence of your travelling companion (for example: additional charge for hotel room).

We will reimburse:

- a) The living expenses you incur.
- b) The additional cost for changing the date or time of the ticket you purchased from a scheduled carrier (plane, boat, train, bus).
The new ticket must be a one-way economy ticket and be used to get you to the planned destination by the most direct route.
- c) The unused and non-refundable portion of the costs you paid in advance to a travel service supplier for land arrangements.

4. If you have to return early or later than planned due to one of the recognized causes.

- b) The additional cost for changing the date or time of the ticket you purchased from a scheduled carrier (plane, boat, train, bus).

The new ticket must be a one-way economy ticket and be used to return to your point of departure by the most direct route.

If you have to return later than planned:
 If an illness or accident delays your return by more than 7 days after the end date of the insurance shown in the "Your insurance choices" document, we will only reimburse the additional cost of the return ticket if you or your travelling companion were hospitalized. In this case, we require proof of hospitalization.

The new ticket must be a one-way economy ticket and be used to get you to the planned destination by the most direct route.

- c) The unused and non-refundable portion of the costs you paid in advance to a travel service supplier for land arrangements.

Caution – Exclusions and limitations

1) Exclusion for injuries or medical conditions that were not stable before purchasing this coverage

Were you suffering from any injury or medical condition before the date you purchased this coverage? Was this injury or medical condition not stable in the 3 months prior to this date?

You are not covered if you have to cancel or modify your trip for this reason, even if you had declared it in the medical questionnaire or if a physician told you you could travel. Travel Insurance only covers unforeseeable events.

How to determine if an injury or medical condition was not stable:

Answer each question in the “6 questions to answer” box below for EACH injury or medical condition. In case of doubt, contact your physician or us for assistance.

6 questions to answer

During the 3 months prior to the date you purchased this coverage, did you have an injury or medical condition for which:

1. you had new symptoms or the existing symptoms were more frequent or more intense?
2. you consulted a physician (except for a routine check-up)?
3. a physician recommended that you undergo a test, you underwent a test or you are waiting for the results?
4. you had surgery, were hospitalized or a physician recommended that you have surgery?
5. you started a new treatment, including a new drug, or a new treatment was prescribed?
6. you had a change in treatment or medication (quantity, frequency or the medication itself) or this change was prescribed?

We do not consider a routine adjustment to insulin or Coumadin, or the replacement of a brand-name drug for an identical generic drug if the dose is the same, to be a change of medication.

Did you answer YES to one of the 6 questions above?

Your injury or medical condition has therefore not been stable in the 3 months prior to the date you purchased this coverage. You are not covered for this injury or medical condition, or related injury or medical condition, except in the event of the exceptions below.

Exceptions for certain minor medical conditions

Is your medical condition a cold, flu, ear infection, sinus infection, sore throat or tonsillitis? You are covered for this medical condition:

- if you have recovered for at least 30 consecutive days on the date you purchased this coverage; and
- if this medical condition is not a chronic illness or a complication of a chronic illness.

2) Other exclusions for medical reasons

We will not pay any expenses in the following cases:

- for a trip cancellation or modification:
 - that results from pregnancy, miscarriage, childbirth or their complications, and that occurs after the first 32 weeks of pregnancy;
 - that is directly or indirectly related to a mental, nervous, psychological or psychiatric disorder, except if you have to be hospitalized for this disorder;
- If you are taking the trip to visit a sick person whose death or state of health causes you to cancel or change your trip.

3) Limitations in case a travel service supplier defaults

In case of default of a travel service supplier, the maximum amount we will reimburse is limited to $2,500 per insured, per trip, and $500,000 for all individual Travel Insurance contracts issued by us.

4) Exclusion related to a reason of which you are aware

We will not reimburse any expenses if, on the date you purchased this coverage or incurred the expenses claimed, you are aware of the reason that forces you to cancel or modify your trip.

5) Exclusions related to your participation in certain sports, activities or risky behaviour

We will not pay any expenses in the following cases:

If you make a claim for expenses that are also covered under another insurance (private or public), we are the “last payer.” In other words, we will only reimburse the portion of expenses that are not reimbursable under this other insurance. However, if this other insurance also states that it is the last payer or if it includes a coordination of benefits clause, the reimbursement will be divided between it and this travel insurance contract, based on the amounts that should have been paid by each.

Assignment of your right of recourse in the event of a claim (right of subrogation)

In the event of a claim due to damage caused by a third party, you assign us your right to sue this third party and any other right that you may have against them. Excerpt from Quebec's Act Respecting the Distribution of Financial Products and Services

439. A distributor may not subordinate the making of a contract to the making of an insurance contract with the insurer specified by the distributor.

The distributor may not exercise undue pressure on the client or use fraudulent tactics to induce the client to purchase a financial product or service.

440. A distributor that, at the time a contract is made, causes the client to make an insurance contract must give the client a notice, drafted in the manner prescribed by regulation of the Authority, stating that the client may rescind the insurance contract within 10 days of signing it.

441. A client may rescind an insurance contract made at the same time as another contract, within 10 days of signing it, by sending notice by registered or certified mail.

Where such an insurance contract is rescinded, the first contract retains all its effects.

442. No contract may contain provisions allowing its amendment in the event of rescission or cancellation by the client of an insurance contract made at the same time.

However, a contract may provide that the rescission or cancellation of the insurance contract will entail, for the remainder of the term, the loss of the favourable conditions extended because more than one contract was made at the same time.

443. A distributor that offers financing for the purchase of goods or services and that requires the debtor to subscribe for insurance to guarantee the reimbursement of the loan must give the debtor a notice, drawn up in the manner prescribed by regulation of the Authority, stating that the debtor may subscribe for insurance with the insurer and representative of the debtor's choice provided that the insurance is considered satisfactory by the creditor, who may not refuse it without reasonable grounds. The distributor may not subordinate the making of the contract of credit to the making of an insurance contract with the insurer specified by the distributor.

No contract of credit may stipulate that it is made subject to the condition that the insurance contract subscribed with such an insurer remains in force until the expiry of the term, or subject to the condition that the expiry of such an insurance contract will entail forfeiture of term or the reduction of the debtor's rights.

The rights of the debtor under the contract of credit shall not be forfeited when the debtor rescinds, cancels or withdraws from the insurance contract, provided that the debtor has subscribed for insurance with another insurer that is considered satisfactory by the creditor, who may not refuse it without reasonable grounds.
